

Theatre Trips

Thursday 26th October

We Will Rock You looked like it had become a permanent fixture in the West End. Smashing records left, right and centre it is a show that people just can't get enough of. Written by Ben Elton with all Queen's greatest hits We Will Rock You is a spectacle of music, colour, dance and technology. However the curtain is set to fall on this record breaking Queenfest. Closing in April 2007, don't just listen to the critics, take this last chance to see for yourself what surely is the biggest musical of the 21st Century.

"Britain, Britain, Britain, Land of diversity. There are men with moustaches and men without. Eggs are cooked in a variety of ways. But what of the people of Britain? What do they? Who is them? And why?"

Peopled by the residents of Little Britain including, Vicky Pollard, Lou and Andy, Dafyd (the only gay in the village) Emily Howard and Marjorie Dawes, the world of Little Britain is the twisted brainchild of creators Matt Lucas and David Walliams. Alternately painfully accurate and whimsically surreal, Little Britain is simply the funniest show of the moment.
