

Theatre Trip

Thursday 14th December

Based on the uplifting true story of the Von Trapp family, The Sound Of Music was the last collaboration between Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II, becoming one of the most successful Oscar-winning film musicals of all time.

Andrew Lloyd Webber's production is set to take the Palladium stage by storm and has Jeremy Sams directing and Arlene Philips taking charge of the choreography.

The score for The Sound Of Music touches the hearts of all ages and brims over with some of the most memorable songs ever performed on the musical stage including My Favourite Things, Do-Re-Mi, Edelweiss, Climb Ev'ry Mountain, Sixteen Going on Seventeen, The Lonely Goatherd and of course the glorious title song The Sound of Music.

Lovingly ripped off from the classic film comedy Monty Python and the Holy Grail, Spamalot is the new musical directed by Oscar Winning Mike Nichols, with a book by the third tallest Python, Eric Idle, and an almost but not entirely new score by Eric Idle (no relation) and John du Prez.

Retelling the legend of King Arthur and his Knights of the Round Table, and featuring a number of gratuitously scantily clad showgirls, not to mention the cows, killer rabbits and French people, Monty Python's Spamalot has been hailed as one of the best musicals.

Reportedly starring Tim Curry for a very limited run don't miss this chance to catch him in the role of King Arthur.
